Toolkit Distribution Ceremony

What: Toolkit distribution among rural entrepreneurs, under the LRP Project

Who: ILO and District Government of Dadu District

When: 3rd January 2016, from 1430 to 1630hrs;

Where: IRM Regional Office, Mehar, District Dadu

The overall goal of the One-UN project titled 'Livelihood restoration, protection and sustainable empowerment of vulnerable peasant communities in Sindh province' is to restore and protect the livelihoods and empower the poor and vulnerable peasants (men, women, boys and girls) dependent on feudal and tribal landholding and farming systems and affected by droughts, floods and insecurity. This goal is at the core of human security provision and development beyond emergency and humanitarian assistance as it aims to improve the quality of life, disaster resilience and dignity of male and female peasants of Dadu district in Sindh Province.

In this context the project provided training to 50 beneficiaries on "Market Development Initiative for Youth Engagement through Skills Development in Dadu District". In support of this training, the project will distribute trade wise toolkits among all the targeted entrepreneurs. Deputy Commissioner, Dadu will grace the occasion as the Chief Guest.

How to Participate: If you are interested to attend the event, please send your name, CNIC number and your media affiliation, to zaheer@ilo.org, and unic.islamabad@unic.org not later than 1700 hours on 2nd February 2016.
