Daily News Highlights
8 November 2019

BY UNIC ISLAMABAD

Health
‘90,000 new breast cancer cases every year’
Islamabad: In Pakistan, around 90,000 new cases of breast cancer are detected each year and 40,000 women lose their lives to this deadly disease, warned Chairman Shifa Foundation Dr. Manzoor-ul-Haq Qazi during the Foundation’s Pink Lady Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign ceremony here on Thursday….

https://www.thenews.com.pk/print/552392-90-000-new-breast-cancer-cases-every-year

Refugees
Mahira Khan appointed UNHCR Goodwill Ambassador for Pakistan
The actor has been appointed as a Goodwill Ambassador by the UNHCR. She has joined the UN Refugee Agency and hopes to use her new position to speak up for the cause….

UNHCR donates vaccine storage facility to govt
PESHAWAR: The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees has donated a modern vaccine storage facility to Khyber Pakhtunkhwa to cater to its needs.

An official statement issued here said the facility, which had the capacity to store large amounts of vaccines, would benefit one million children and one million women of child-bearing age...

K-P gets first-ever vaccine storage facility

Chief Minister Mahmood Khan hails UNHCR steps
PESHAWAR: Chief Minister Mahmood Khan on Thursday appreciated the steps taken by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees for the uplift of deprived communities in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa.

He was talking to the UNHCR team led by Assistant High Commissioner Operations George William Okoth-Obbo. State Minister for States and Frontier Regions Shehryar Afridi and others were present as well. The chief minister thanked the entire team for support and cooperation....

https://www.thenews.com.pk/print/552404-cm-hails-unhcr-steps